

You are invited to attend a presentation on:

Mountain Lions in Southern California

Saturday, March 25, 2017 ~ Workshop starts at 10 a.m.

Located at Gouvion Vineyards in the Tenaja Corridor - 43780 Camino de Las Brisas, Murrieta

Santa Rosa Plateau Ecological Reserve

39400 Clinton Keith Road, Murrieta, CA 92562

Agenda

Mountain Lion Behavior & Puma Project Update -

Dr. Winston Vickers, Associate Veterinarian,
Karen C. Drayer Wildlife Health Center, UC Davis

To:

Protective Enclosures for Livestock and Pets -

The Mountain Lion Foundation

"Creating for Cougars" Fundraiser

Pen building demonstration onsite:

Photo credit: Korinna Domingo

Directions

Gouvion Vineyards is 7.8 miles southwest of the Santa Rosa Plateau Visitor Center. Take a left out of the Visitor Center parking lot and follow Tenaja Road 6 miles. Take a left on Corona Calle Camino and a left on Avocado Mesa Rd. Turn right on Camino de las Brisas.

Signs will be posted.

Sponsored by The Nature Conservancy—RSVP to cbell@tnc.org or 951.677.6951x223